to raise revenue for the cost of providing policing and law enforcement services in all contributing areas.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the solicitor general must estimate for a taxation year the total cost to the Province of providing policing and law enforcement services to all contributing areas, taking into account the following factors based on the most recent information available to the solicitor general:

(a) the number of general duty and investigative unit members of the provincial police force assigned for the year to provincial police force detachments that provide policing and law enforcement services to the contributing areas;

(b) the average annual cost of a general duty or investigative unit member of the provincial police force to municipalities with populations between 5 000 and 15 000 that provide policing and law enforcement under section 3 (2).

(3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing parts of contributing areas, or categories of parts of contributing areas, for which the solicitor general must exclude from the estimate under subsection (2) the cost of members described in subsection (2) (a) who provide policing and law enforcement services in those parts or categories of parts.

that is not treaty lands of a taxing treaty first nation in order to recover from each of those contributing areas the amount apportioned to it under paragraph (a), and

(c) determine the rates that, if applied to the net taxable value of land and improvements in the treaty lands of a taxing treaty first nation, would generate the amount apportioned to it under paragraph (a).

(4) The apportionment under subsection (3) (a) may take into account, to the extent the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers advisable,

(a) the converted value of land and improvements in each contributing area, and

(b) the population of each contributing area.

(5) The rates determined under subsection (3) (b) may be different for different contributing areas.

(6) On the request of a regional district on or before October 31 of the calendar year before a taxation year, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may

(a) reapportion among the contributing areas of the regional district the total amount apportioned to those areas under subsection (3) (a) for the taxation year,

(b) the amount of police taxes apportioned to the municipality or taxing treaty first nation under section 66.3 (3) (a) or (6) (a), as applicable, and

(4) The write off of an amount under subsection (2) does not

(2) All police taxes collected by a municipality must be accounted for as police taxes.

(3) Subject to this Part and the Assessment Act, the Taxation (Rural Area) Act applies to the assessment, levy, collection and recovery of police taxes in treaty lands, except treaty lands of a taxing treaty first nation, an electoral area or the area of the Province outside a regional district, including to the addition of penalties and interest to delinquent police taxes, as if the police taxes were taxes imposed under the Taxation (Rural Area) Act.

(iii) the range of disciplinary or corrective measures being considered by the discipline authority in the case;

(ii) includes the effect of subsection (5) of this section.

(3) If, on review of the report and the evidence and records referenced in it, the discipline authority considers that the conduct of the member or former member appears to constitute misconduct, the discipline authority must convene a discipline proceeding in respect of the matter, unless section 120 (16)[prehearing conference] applies.

- (b) the discipline authority is satisfied that
 - (i) there is an apparent conflict between the evidence of 2 or more witnesses,

- (ii) a prehearing conference would be contrary to the public interest.

(4) Despite subsection (3) (b) (i), the discipline authority may offer a prehearing conference to a member or former member if, in the police complaint commissioner's opinion, it would not be contrary to the public interest.

(i) incriminate the witness in a criminal proceeding, or

(ii) establish the witness's liability in a civil proceeding.

(8) The discipline representative, if any, and the member or former member, or her or his agent or legal counsel, if any, may examine or cross-examine

(a) the investigating officer who prepared the final investigation report, a supplementary report, an investigation report under section 132[adjournment of discipline proceeding for further investigation] or any other record in respect of the investigation, and

(b) any witness on whom a notice to appear is served under section 121 (1) (b) or (2) [if member's or former member's request to question witnesses is accepted].

(9) The member or former member concerned is not compellable at a discipline proceeding under this section, but

(a) the member or former member may give evidence if she or he chooses to do so,

(b) the member or former member, or her or his agent or legal counsel, if any, may make submissions concerning

(i) the complaint, if any,

(ii) the adequacy of the investigation, and

(iii) the disciplinary or corrective measures that would be appropriate, and

(c) an adverse inference may be drawn from the member's or former member's failure to testify.

(10) Despite section 123 (9)[matters related to discipline proceeding] and at any time on request of a witness who is not a member, the discipline authority must allow the witness to be accompanied by one other person when the witness is giving evidence at the discipline proceeding.

(11) A discipline proceeding must be transcribed or electronically recorded, and the transcription or recording must be considered to be correct and to constitute part of the record of the proceeding.

(12) The validity of a discipline proceeding is not affected if, by a mechanical or human failure or other accident, the transcription or recording of the proceeding is destroyed, interrupted or incomplete.

Conclusion of discipline proceeding

125 (1) Within 10 business days after hearing evidence and submissions under section 124[discipline proceeding] concerning the conduct of a member or former member, the discipline authority must

- (a) make a finding in relation to each allegation of misconduct against the member or former member as to whether the misconduct has been proven,

(2) Submissions referred to in subsection (1) (d) must be made to the discipline authority within 10 business days after receiving a copy of the form referred to in subsection (1) (c).

Imposition of disciplinary or corrective measures in relation to members

126 (1) After finding that the conduct of a member is misconduct and hearing submissions, if any, from the member or her or his agent or legal counsel, or from the complainant under section 113[complainant's right to make submissions], the discipline authority must, subject to this section and sections 141 (10)[review on the record] and 143 (9) [public hearing], propose to take one or more of the following disciplinary or corrective measures in relation to the member:

- (a) dismiss the member;
- (b) reduce the member's rank;
- (c) suspend the member without pay for not more than 30 scheduled working days;

(g) the range of disciplinary or corrective measures taken in similar circumstances, and

(h) other aggravating or mitigating factors.

(3) If the discipline authority considers that one or more disciplinary or corrective measures are necessary, an approach that seeks to correct and educate the member concerned takes precedence, unless it is unworkable or would bring the administration of police discipline into disrepute.

Proposed disciplinary or corrective measures in relation to former members

127 (1) After finding that the conduct of a former member is misconduct and hearing submissions, if any, from the former member or her or his agent or legal counsel, the discipline authority must apply the provisions of section 126 (2) and (3) [imposition of disciplinary or corrective measures] in respect of the matter as if the former member had continued to be a member, then determine what disciplinary or corrective measures the discipline authority would have taken under section 126 (1) if the former member had continued to be a member.

(2) The disciplinary or corrective measures determined in accordance with subsection (1) of this section are the disciplinary or corrective measures to be proposed by the discipline authority for the purposes of section 128 (1) (a) [disciplinary disposition record].

Disciplinary disposition record

128 (1) Unless the police complaint commissioner grants an extension under subsection (2) of this section, within 10 business days after hearing submissions under section 125 (1) (d) [conclusion of discipline proceeding], the discipline authority must

(c) include in the disposition record any aggravating or mitigating factors in the case,

(d) serve a copy of the disposition record on the member or former member concerned, together with notification of the effect of sections 133 (6) [review of discipline proceeding] and 136 (1) [time limit for requesting public hearing or review on the record], and

(e) provide another copy of the disposition record to the police complaint commissioner, together with the entire unedited record of the proceedings.

(2) The police complaint commissioner may grant an extension under subsection (1) if the police complaint commissioner considers that there are good reasons for doing so and it is not contrary to the public interest.

(3) After receiving the records referred to in subsection (1) (e), the police complaint commissioner may order that the discipline authority provide to the police complaint commissioner further reasons justifying the particular disciplinary or corrective measures proposed.

(4) A discipline authority must comply with an order under subsection (3).

Duty of investigating officer to provide all records to police complaint commissioner

129 (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the conclusion of an investigation concerning the conduct of a member or former member under this Division, the investigating officer must provide all records related to the investigation to the police complaint commissioner, in the form and manner required by the police complaint commissioner.

If member fails to attend discipline proceeding

130 If a member or former member whose conduct is the subject of a discipline proceeding fails to attend or remain in attendance at the discipline proceeding and the discipline authority is satisfied that the member or former member has been served with notice of the discipline proceeding, the discipline authority may

(a) proceed with the discipline proceeding in the absence of the member or former member,

(b) draw an adverse inference from that failure, and

(c) make any finding and propose any disciplinary or corrective measure that the discipline authority considers appropriate.

Admissibility of witness evidence in other proceedings

131 (1) Evidence given by a witness in a discipline proceeding, including the member or former member concerned, is inadmissible in evidence in court or in any other proceeding, except in

(b) a public inquiry referred to in section 177 (4) (f),

(c) a prosecution for perjury in respect of sworn testimony,

(2) Subsection (1) applies also in respect of evidence of the existence of a discipline proceeding under this Part.

Adjournment of discipline proceeding for further investigation

132 (1) At any time before or during a discipline proceeding, the discipline authority may adjourn the proceeding for up to 30 business days if the discipline authority considers that further investigation into the conduct of a member or former member that is the subject of the discipline proceeding, or into the circumstances surrounding that conduct, is necessary in the public interest.

(2) In ordering an adjournment under subsection (1), the discipline authority may direct the investigating officer to investigate further any aspect of the conduct of the member or former member or the circumstances surrounding that conduct.

(3) If a direction is issued under subsection (2), the investigating officer must

(ii) a complete summary of the relevant evidence;

(iii) a list of all witnesses interviewed by the investigating officer;

(iv) a list of all records related to the investigation;

(v) the investigating officer's assessment of the evidence and analysis of the facts, and

(c) file the investigation report with the discipline authority and the police complaint commissioner within 20 business days after the direction is issued.

(4) The investigating officer must make available to the discipline authority and the police complaint commissioner all of the evidence and the records referenced in the investigation report.

(5) Within 5 business days after receiving the investigation report, the discipline authority must, subject to subsection (6), provide

(b) the member or former member with a copy of the investigation report and the evidence and records referenced in it.

(6) The discipline authority may sever from the investigation report any portions that must or may be excepted from disclosure by the head of a public body under Division 2 of Part 2 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

(7) Within 5 business days after receiving the report referred to in subsection (5), the complainant or the member or former member concerned may apply to the police complaint commissioner for disclosure of all or part of the information that was severed from the report.

(8) The police complaint commissioner may disclose information under subsection (7) only if the police complaint commissioner considers that

(a) disclosure is necessary for the applicant to pursue rights granted by this Act, and

(b) disclosure is appropriate having regard to Part 2 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Review of discipline proceedings

133 (1) Within 10 business days after the date of the disposition record referred to in section 128 (1)[disciplinary disposition record], the discipline authority must

(i) the findings and reasons referred to in section 125 (1) (b)[conclusion of discipline proceeding],

(ii) the disciplinary or corrective measures proposed by the discipline authority under section 128 (1) (a)[disciplinary disposition record] and any policy changes being considered by the discipline authority in respect of the complaint, if any,

(iii) the reasons for the proposed disciplinary or corrective measures or policy changes,

(iv) any noted aggravating and mitigating factors in the case, and

(v) the recourse available to the complainant under this section, and

(b) provide the police complaint commissioner with a copy of the report given under paragraph (a) to the complainant, if any, and the member or former member concerned.

(2) The discipline authority may sever from the report given to the complainant, if any, under subsection (1) (a) any portions of that report that must or may be excepted from disclosure by the head of a public body under Division 2 of Part 2 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

(3) Within 10 business days after receiving the report referred to in subsection (1), the complainant may apply to the police complaint commissioner for disclosure of all or part of the information that was severed from the report.

(4) The police complaint commissioner may disclose information requested under subsection (3) only if the police complaint commissioner considers that

(a) disclosure is necessary for the applicant to pursue rights granted by this Act, and

(b) disclosure is appropriate having regard to Part 2 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

(5) If aggrieved by any of the matters in the report described in subsection (1) (a) (i) to (iv), the complainant or member or former member concerned may file with the police complaint commissioner a written request for a public hearing or review on the record in accordance with section 136 (1) [time limit for requesting public hearing or review on the record].

(6) Unless a public hearing or review on the record is arranged by the police complaint commissioner, the findings referred to in subsection (1) (a) (i) and the determination as to appropriate disciplinary or corrective measures recorded in the disposition record in respect of the matter are final and conclusive and not open to question or review by a court on any ground.

Chief constable may delegate discipline authority functions to deputy chief constable or senior officer

134 (1) A chief constable of a municipal police department may delegate any of her or his powers or duties as discipline authority in a member's or former member's case under this Part to

(a) a deputy chief constable or senior officer of the municipal police department, or

(b) a chief constable, deputy chief constable or senior officer of another municipal police department.

(2) A delegation under this section must be in writing and, as soon as practicable after the delegation is made, the chief constable making the delegation must notify the police complaint commissioner of that delegation and, subject to section 88[duty to preserve evidence relating to complaint or report], the member or former member concerned.

Power to designate another discipline authority if in public interest

135 (1) Subject to subsection (2), at any time after an investigation is initiated under this Part into the conduct of a member or former member of a municipal police department, if the police complaint commissioner considers it necessary in the public interest that a person other than a chief constable of the municipal police department, or her or his delegate, be the discipline authority for the purposes of one or more provisions of this Division, the police complaint commissioner may designate a senior officer of another municipal police department to exercise the powers and perform the duties of a discipline authority under the applicable provision, in substitution of the chief constable or the delegate, as the case may be.

(2) At any time after an investigation is initiated under this Part into the conduct of a member or former member of a municipal police department who is or was a chief constable or deputy chief constable at the time of the conduct of concern, if the police complaint commissioner considers it necessary in the public interest that a person other than the chair of the board be the discipline authority for the purposes of one or more provisions of this Division,

(a) the police complaint commissioner must request the Associate Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to

(i) consult with retired judges of the Provincial Court, the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeal, and

(ii) recommend one or more retired judges to act as discipline authority for the purposes of those provisions, and

(b) the police complaint commissioner must appoint one of the retired judges recommended to exercise the powers and perform the duties of a discipline authority under the applicable provision, in substitution of the chair of the board of the municipal police department.

(3) The police complaint commissioner may make a designation under subsection (1) or an appointment under subsection (2)

(a) on application by

(i) a chief constable of the municipal police department with which the member is employed or former member was employed at the time of the conduct of concern, or

(ii) the chair of the board of the municipal police department with which the member is employed or former member was employed at the time of the conduct of concern, or

(b) on the police complaint commissioner's own motion.

(4) The police complaint commissioner must notify all of the following, as applicable, of the designation or appointment:

(b) the member or former member;

(c) a chief constable of the municipal police department with which the member is employed or former member was employed at the time of the conduct of concern;

(d) the investigating officer;

(e) the board of the municipal police department with which the member is employed or former member was employed at the time of the conduct of concern.

(5) The police complaint commissioner must provide the designated or appointed discipline authority with copies of all reports under sections 98[investigating officer's duty to file reports], 115 [if member's or former member's request for further investigation is accepted] and 132 [adjournment of discipline proceeding for further investigation] that may have been filed with the police complaint commissioner before the designation or appointment.

Time limit for requesting public hearing or review on the record

136 (1) A written request for a public hearing or review on the record, from a complainant or member or former member described in section 133 (5)[review of discipline proceedings], must be received by the police complaint commissioner within 20 business days after the complainant or member or former member, as the case may be, receives the report referred to in section 133 (1) (a).

(2) The police complaint commissioner may extend the period within which a complainant or member or former member has to request a public hearing or review on the record under subsection (1) if the police complaint commissioner considers that

(a) there are good reasons for the delay in making the request, and

(b) an extension would not be contrary to the public interest.

Circumstances when member or former member concerned is entitled to public hearing

137 (1) Subject to subsection (2), the police complaint commissioner must promptly arrange a public hearing on receiving a request under section 136[time limit for requesting public hearing or review on the record] from a member or former member in respect of whose conduct the discipline authority proposes as a disciplinary measure dismissal or reduction in rank.

(2) The police complaint commissioner may arrange a review on the record under section 141[review on the record] instead of a public hearing if the police complaint commissioner is satisfied, in the circumstances, that

(a) it is unnecessary to do either of the following:

(i) examine or cross-examine witnesses;

(ii) receive evidence that is not part of the record of the disciplinary decision described in section 141

(3)[review on the record] or the service record of the member or former member, and

(b) a public hearing is not required to preserve or restore public confidence in the investigation of misconduct and the administration of police discipline.

Determining whether to arrange public hearing or review on the record in other circumstances

138 (1) On

(a) receiving a request under section 136 in circumstances other than those described in section 137

(1)[circumstances when member or former member concerned is entitled to public hearing], or

(b) the police complaint commissioner's own initiative if the limitation period established for making the request under section 136 (1)[time limit for requesting public hearing or review on the record] has expired, the police complaint commissioner must arrange a public hearing or review on the record if the police complaint commissioner

(c) considers that there is a reasonable basis to believe that

(i) the discipline authority's findings under section 125 (1) (a)[conclusion of discipline proceeding] are incorrect, or

(ii) the discipline authority has incorrectly applied section 126[imposition of disciplinary or corrective measures] in proposing disciplinary or corrective measures under section 128 (1)[disciplinary disposition record], or

(d) otherwise considers that a public hearing or review on the record is necessary in the public interest.

(2) In considering whether a public hearing or review on the record is necessary in the public interest, the police complaint commissioner must consider all relevant factors including, without limitation, the following factors:

(a) the nature and seriousness of the complaint or alleged misconduct;

(b) the nature and seriousness of harm or loss alleged to have been suffered by any person as a result of the conduct of the member or former member, including, without limitation, whether

(i) the conduct has caused, or would be likely to cause, physical, emotional or psychological harm or financial loss to a person,

(ii) the conduct has violated, or would be likely to violate, a person's dignity, privacy or other rights recognized by law, or

(iii) the conduct has undermined, or would be likely to undermine, public confidence in the police, the handling of complaints or the disciplinary process;

(c) whether there is a reasonable prospect that a public hearing or review would assist in determining the truth;

(d) whether an arguable case can be made that

(i) there was a flaw in the investigation,

(ii) the disciplinary or corrective measures proposed are inappropriate or inadequate, or

(iii) the discipline authority's interpretation or application of this Part or any other enactment was incorrect.

(3) The police complaint commissioner must make a determination as to whether to arrange a public hearing or review on the record under this section promptly after receiving the request referred to in subsection (1) or promptly after expiry of the relevant limitation period, as the case may be, but in any event, the determination must be made within 20 business days after that request is received or that limitation period has expired.

(4) Within 10 business days after making a determination under this section, the police complaint commissioner must notify the following of that determination:

- (a) the complainant, if any;
- (b) the member or former member whose conduct is the subject of concern;
- (c) a chief constable of the municipal police department with which the member is employed or, in the case of a former member, a chief constable of the municipal police department with which the former member was employed at the time of the conduct of concern;
- (d) if the member or former member concerned is or was the chief constable of a municipal police department, the chair of the board of that municipal police department;
- (e) the discipline authority involved, if different than the chief constable or chair of the board referred to in paragraph (c) or (d).

(5) If the police complaint commissioner determines, in respect of a request referred to in subsection (1) (a), that there are insufficient grounds to arrange a public hearing or review on the record under this section, the police complaint commissioner must give written reasons for that determination in the notification under subsection (4).

(6) A determination under subsection (5) is final and conclusive and is not open to question or review by a court on any ground.

(7) If the police complaint commissioner

- (a) determines that there are sufficient grounds to arrange a public hearing under this section, or
- (b) arranges a public hearing under section 137[circumstances when member or former member concerned is entitled to public hearing], the police complaint commissioner must, for the purposes of the public hearing under section 143, appoint legal counsel to present to the adjudicator the case relative to each allegation of misconduct against the member or former member concerned.

Reconsideration on new evidence

139 (1) Despite section 138 (3) and (6) [determining whether to arrange public hearing or review on the record], at any time after the police complaint commissioner has determined in a case that there are insufficient grounds to arrange a public hearing or review on the record under section 138, the police complaint commissioner may reconsider the determination if satisfied, on application by any person or on the police complaint commissioner's own initiative, that new evidence has become available or been discovered that is substantial and material to the case or that determination.

(2) In reconsidering whether there are sufficient grounds to arrange a public hearing or review on the record, the police complaint commissioner must consider all relevant factors, including, without limitation, the factors described in section 138 (2) and (3).

(3) Within 10 business days after making a determination on reconsideration, the police complaint commissioner must notify the persons referred to in section 138 (4), and section 138 (5) to (7) applies.

Determinations may be made available to public

140 (1) The police complaint commissioner may make available to members of the public, by both of the following means, any determination made under section 138 [determining whether to arrange public hearing or review on the record] or 139 [reconsideration on new evidence]:

(a) posting the determination on a publicly accessible website maintained by or on behalf of the police complaint commissioner;

(b) having the determination available for public inspection in the office of the police complaint commissioner during regular office hours.

(2) The police complaint commissioner may sever from a determination referred to in subsection (1) any portions of the determination that must or may be excepted from disclosure by the head of a public body under Division 2 of Part 2 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Review on the record

141 (1) In this section and section 143[public hearing], "disciplinary decision", in relation to a discipline proceeding under section 124[discipline proceeding], means any of the matters described in section 133 (1) (a) (i) to (iv) [review of discipline proceedings], including any further reasons provided under section 128 (3)[disciplinary disposition record].

(2) Subject to section 143 (1)[public hearing], if the police complaint commissioner determines that there are sufficient grounds to arrange a public hearing or review on the record in respect of a disciplinary decision under section 138[determining whether to arrange public hearing or review on the record] or 139 [reconsideration on new evidence], the police complaint commissioner may appoint an adjudicator under section 142[appointment of adjudicator for public hearing or review on the record] to conduct a review on the record of the disciplinary decision under this section.

(3) For the purposes of a review on the record under this section, the record of a disciplinary decision consists of

(a) the final investigation report of the investigating officer, any supplementary reports or investigation reports under section 132[adjournment of discipline proceeding for further investigation] and all records related to the investigation and the discipline proceeding,

(b) the records referred to in section 128 (1)[disciplinary disposition record],

(c) the report referred to in section 133 (1) (a)[review of discipline proceedings], and

(d) in the case of a review on the record initiated under section 139[reconsideration on new evidence], any record relating to the new evidence referred to in that section.

(4) Despite subsections (2) and (3) of this section and section 137 (2) (a) [circumstance when member or former member concerned is entitled to public hearing], if the adjudicator considers that there are special circumstances and it is necessary and appropriate to do so, the adjudicator may receive evidence that is not part of either of the following:

- (a) the record of the disciplinary decision concerned;
- (b) the service record of the member or former member concerned.

(5) The member or former member concerned is not compellable at a review on the record under this section, but the member or former member or her or his agent or legal counsel, if any, may make submissions concerning the matters under review.

(6) In addition to the member or former member concerned or her or his agent or legal counsel, the police complaint commissioner or her or his commission counsel may also make submissions concerning the matters under review.

(7) The adjudicator may permit the following persons to make submissions concerning the matters under review:

- (a) the complainant, if any, or the complainant's agent or legal counsel;
- (b) the discipline authority or the discipline representative.

(8) The adjudicator may permit submissions under subsection (5), (6) or (7) to be oral or written.

(9) In a review proceeding under this section, the standard of review to be applied by an adjudicator to a disciplinary decision is correctness.

(10) After a review of a disciplinary decision under this section, the adjudicator must do the following:

- (a) decide whether any misconduct has been proven;
- (b) determine the appropriate disciplinary or corrective measures to be taken in relation to the member or former member in accordance with section 126 [imposition of disciplinary or corrective measures] or 127 [proposed disciplinary or corrective measures];

(c) recommend to a chief constable or the board of the municipal police department concerned any changes in policy or practice that the adjudicator considers advisable in respect of the matter.

(11) Within 10 business days after reaching a decision under subsection (10), the adjudicator must provide notice of the decision, together with written reasons, to the following:

- (a) the complainant, if any;
- (b) the member or former member whose conduct is the subject of the review;
- (c) a chief constable or chair of the board of the municipal police department with which the member is employed or former member was employed at the time of the conduct of concern;
- (d) the discipline authority involved in the matter, if different than a chief constable or chair of the board referred to in paragraph (c);
- (e) the police complaint commissioner.

Appointment of adjudicator for public hearing or review on the record

142 (1) In circumstances described in section 137 [circumstances when member or former member concerned is entitled to public hearing] or when the police complaint commissioner determines that there are sufficient grounds to arrange a public hearing or review on the record under section 138 [determining whether to arrange public hearing or review on the record] or 139 [reconsideration on new evidence], the police complaint commissioner must request the Associate Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to

- (a) consult with retired judges of the Provincial Court, the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeal, and
- (b) recommend one or more retired judges to act as adjudicator for the purposes of section 141 [review on the record] or 143 [public hearing], as the case may be.

(2) The police complaint commissioner must appoint one of the retired judges recommended as adjudicator for the public hearing or review on the record.

(3) The adjudicator appointed must arrange, and set the earliest practicable date or dates for, the public hearing or review on the record, and the police complaint commissioner must serve written notice of the proceeding on the following persons at least 15 business days before the proceeding may commence:

- (a) the complainant, if any;
- (b) the member or former member whose conduct is the subject of the proceeding;
- (c) the discipline authority concerned.

(4) If, after reasonable effort, service under subsection (3) cannot be effected on the complainant or the member or former member, the police complaint commissioner may serve the notice referred to in that subsection by registered mail to that person's last address known to, or on record with, the police complaint commissioner.

Public hearing

143 (1) Despite section 141[review on the record], the police complaint commissioner must appoint an adjudicator under section 142 to conduct a public hearing under this section instead of a review on the record under section 141[review on the record]if either of the following applies:

- (a) the police complaint commissioner determines that
 - (i) there are sufficient grounds to arrange a public hearing or review on the record under section 138[determining whether to arrange public hearing or review on the record] or 139 [reconsideration on new evidence], and
 - (ii) it is likely that evidence other than
 - (A) the record of the disciplinary decision described in section 141 (3)[review on the record],

- (B) the service record of the member or former member concerned, and
- (C) submissions described in section 141 (5), (6) and (7) [review on the record], will be necessary to complete a review of the disciplinary decision on a standard of correctness and do the things described in section 141 (10);

(b) in the police complaint commissioner's opinion, a public hearing of the matter under this section is required to preserve or restore public confidence in the investigation of misconduct or the administration of police discipline.

(2) A public hearing is a new hearing concerning conduct of a member or former member that was the subject of an investigation or complaint under this Division.

(3) A public hearing is not limited to the evidence and issues that were before a discipline authority in a discipline proceeding.

(4) For the purposes of a public hearing under this section, public hearing counsel must present to the adjudicator the case relative to each allegation of misconduct against the member or former member concerned.

(5) Public hearing counsel, the member or former member concerned, or her or his agent or legal counsel, and commission counsel may

- (a) call any witness who has relevant evidence to give, whether or not the witness was interviewed during the original investigation or called at the discipline proceeding,
- (b) examine or cross-examine witnesses,
- (c) introduce into evidence any record or report concerning the matter, and

(5) Disclosure of a member's or former member's service record of discipline to persons other than those referred to in subsection (3) requires both

(b) consent of the member.
