

Article 23

Life is the gift of God as well as the natural right of human beings. No one shall be deprived of this except by legal provision.