

Article 61

The Constitution guarantees to Hondurans and foreigners resident in the country, the right to the sanctity of life, to the individual, security to freedom, equality before the law and property.

Article 65

The right to life is inviolable.