

LAW
ON CONDUCTING MEETINGS, ASSEMBLIES,
RALLIES AND DEMONSTRATIONS OF THE REPUBLIC OF ARMENIA

ARTICLE 1 – THE OBJECTIVE AND THE SUBJECT OF REGULATION OF THE LAW

1. The objective of this law is to create the necessary conditions for citizens of the Republic of Armenia, foreign citizens, stateless persons (hereafter referred to as “citizens”) and legal persons to exercise their right to conduct peaceful, weaponless meetings, assemblies, rallies and demonstrations set forth in the Constitution and international treaties. The exercise of this right is not subject to any restriction, except in cases prescribed by the Law and which are necessary in a democratic society in the interests of national security or public security for the prevention of disorder and crime, for the protection of health and morals, or for the protection of the rights and freedoms of others. This article does not prevent the imposition of lawful restrictions on the exercise of these rights by police and state bodies.
2. This law regulates relations pertinent to conducting peaceful meetings, assemblies, rallies (processions) or demonstrations (including pickets), as well as other events.

ARTICLE 2 - MAIN CONCEPTS USED FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE LAW

iv. in areas not for general use, if the rights of its disposer, matron and user are violated.

The decision to prohibit the conducting of a mass public event may be appealed to court. The Court shall render a judgment within 24 hours. The court's judgment on invalidating the decision to prohibit the conducting of a mass public event shall become effectively from the moment it is promulgated.

5. In cultural and sport complexes, public events could be restricted by the authorized bodies in order not to disrupt normal course of these events.

6. 1. A spontaneous mass public event may not last more than six hours. Any subsequent mass event conducted on the same phenomenon or happening may not be deemed spontaneous and must be conducted in accordance with the notification procedure.

ARTICLE 10 - NOTIFICATION ON CONDUCTING A PUBLIC EVENT

1. With the exception of spontaneous public events, mass public events may be conducted only after notifying the authorized body in writing.

2. Citizens and legal persons shall have the right to convene other events and non-mass public events without notification to the authorized body, provided that such events do not disrupt public order. Non-mass public events conducted in violation of the present article are considered to be forbidden and can be terminated according to the provisions of the present law on stipulated order on conducting public events.

3. Organizers shall submit a written notification about organization of a mass public event to the head of the community where mass public event is organized. The notification shall be deemed as legal and subject to consideration if it is presented not later than five working days and not earlier than twenty days prior to the convention of the event. Should the mass public event be conducted as a rally, such notification shall be submitted to authorized bodies of all areas on the route of such rally.

ARTICLE 11 - CONTENT AND PROCEDURE FOR SUBMISSION OF NOTIFICATION ON CONDUCTING MASS PUBLIC EVENT

1. Notification, signed by organizers, on conducting a mass public event shall include:

- the venue of the mass public event, possible time of beginning and end, if a rally is envisaged, then the route and the possible schedule of the rally,
- Passport details or details of any other document certifying the identity.

In case the mass public event is organized by legal person, together with notification, also the decision of the competent body about the organization of the event should be enclosed.

4. Persons under 18 years of age not qualified as fully capable should also submit a written consent of their parents or custodians.

Should the notification be delivered in person, validity of signature of the organizer, parents or custodians shall be confirmed by an official receiving the notification or, [if the notification is delivered] otherwise, be certified by a notary.

5. Notification on conducting a mass public event submitted to authorized bodies shall be entered in a special journal in chronological order, and copies thereof shall be posted in an accessible and visible location on the premises of the authorized body. The authorizing body shall send a copy of the notification to the relevant bodies of police.

ARTICLE 12 - CONSIDERATION OF NOTIFICATION ON CONDUCTING A MASS PUBLIC EVENT

1. The authorized body shall consider the notification within 72 hours of receiving it, in the order in which notifications have been received.

2. The Head of community or his/her authorized representative shall carry out consideration of notifications and take decisions [with respect thereof] on behalf of the authorized body.

3. The consideration of notifications shall be public. Consideration of notification may be attended by the organizers or not more than their three representatives. Consideration of notification shall be carried out regardless of presence of the organizers.

Consideration of notification may be attended by other persons invited by the authorized body.

4. Procedure for consideration of notifications is established by the authorized body; however, the organizer shall be fully entitled to the right to present his/her position. Participants to consideration of notifications shall have the right to speak, ask questions, answer questions, make suggestions or interventions and submit additional documents, judgments or other information. Consideration of each notification shall not take more than one hour.

5. Should the organizer submit a flawed notification, the authorized body shall, at the time of consideration of such notification, offer detailed information on such flaws to the present organizers or their representatives. If possible, the flaws shall be fixed on the spot and consideration of the notification shall continue.

Consideration of notification or decision making may be put off exclusively at the request of the organizers, if there is a need to fix the flaws identified in the notification or it is necessary to submit additional documentation. Should consideration of notification or decision making be delayed, the time frame established under para. 1 of this Article does not apply.

6. In the result of consideration of the notification, in the absence of the circumstances referred in the Article 13, the notification about mass public event is taken into consideration and the event is held in the place and time mentioned in the notification. In the presence of the circumstances referred in Article 13, a decision is taken about prohibition of a mass public event.

7. The authorized body shall immediately inform the organizers and the police on its decision taken as a result of consideration of the notification and shall post it in a specially dedicated accessible and visible spot. The decision of the authorized body shall remain posted until 18:00 hours when the mass public event mentioned in the consented notification takes place.

8. Should the authorized body not issue a decision prohibiting convention of the mass public event within 72 hours of receiving the notification, the organizers shall have the right to conduct the mass public event on terms and conditions set forth in the notification.

ARTICLE 13 - PROHIBITION TO CONDUCT A MASS PUBLIC EVENT

1. In the result of the consideration of a notification, the decision taken by the authorized body according to the rule prescribed in Article 12, a mass public event could be prohibited only, when:

- 1) After being informed about the missing information, the notification is not accompanied by all documents required under Article 11 of this law, or any required information is missing,
- 2) some other mass event or other event that precludes convention of the event takes place on the mentioned date, time and location,
- 3) The grounds stipulated by Article 9 of this Law are present .

The rally could be prohibited if the continuation of the rally is so long that will result in an unreasonable restriction of rights and freedoms of other people.

2. The decision to prohibit conducting a mass public event shall contain a justified and clear explanation of the grounds whereby the mass public event is prohibited.

3. The decision to prohibit conducting a mass public event may be appealed in court. The court shall issue a verdict within 24 hours. A court verdict to invalidate the decision to prohibit conducting a mass public event enters into force from the date of issuance.

4. Should the authorized body find during the consideration of notification that there are grounds to prohibit conducting a mass public event pursuant to paragraph 2 or last paragraph of part 1 of this Article, the authorized body shall offer to the organizer other dates (in the place and at the time specified in the notification) and other hours (in the place and on the date specified in the notification) for conducting a mass public event or other conditions concerning the form of the event.

Another date proposed by the authorized body shall be within two days after the date proposed by the organizer.

Another time proposed by the authorized body shall be the same as proposed by the organizer or be within three hours' difference.

5. Should the authorized body find during consideration of the notification that there are sufficient grounds to prohibit conducting a mass public event in accordance with part 3, points 2 and 4 of part 4 and part 5 of this Law, the authorized body shall offer to the organizer another place for conducting the mass public event (on the date and time specified in the notification).

Another place proposed by the authorized body shall meet reasonable requirements of the organizer, specifically with regard to possibility of participation of an estimated number of participants, provided the notification contains such information. Proposed places should not include areas outside the selected community and, in the case of Yerevan, areas outside selected districts. The proposed place shall be as close as possible to the place specified in the notification.

6. Any other date, time or place for conducting a mass public event may be identified subject to mutual consent of the authorized body and the organizer.

7. Should the organizers consent to any of proposals of the authorized body under paras. 4 thru 6 of this Article, the authorized body and the organizers shall prepare a protocol that empowers the organizers to conduct a mass public event.

ARTICLE 14 - BASES AND PROCEDURE FOR TERMINATION OF A PUBLIC EVENT

1. Police representatives shall have the right to take a decision with regard to terminating a public event, establishing reasonable time-frame for such termination and requesting the organizers to terminate the public event if :

1).a mass public event is conducted without notification;

1.1).a spontaneous mass public event continues for more than six hours.

2).a mass public event is prohibited,

3).notwithstanding a warning by a police representative, the public event or other events continue in full or in part in locations referred to under para. 3 of Article 9 of this law or considerably deviate from the itinerary or schedule of the rally,

4) notwithstanding a warning by a police representative, public order and requirements of the law are violated and, by doing so, life and health of persons, national security, public safety and public order are jeopardized, or a substantial material harm to the state, community, physical or legal persons is threatened to be caused.

2. Upon receiving the warning referred to under para. 1 of this Article, the organizer is obliged to immediately announce the termination of the event and take measures for the termination of the public event within the time-frame established by a police representative.

3. The police shall have the right to compulsorily terminate the public event, provided, solely and exclusively, that :

1) the request to terminate [the public event] made in a manner prescribed by this Article is not immediately announced by the organizer to the participants, or

2) the request to terminate the public event has not been implemented within the defined time-frame and the continuation of it is a real threat to lives of people, health, state and public security, public order, as well as considerable property damage will be done to state, community, natural and legal persons.

Prior to compulsory termination of the public event, the police representative shall no less than twice inform the participants through a loudspeaker about the request to terminate the public event within a reasonable time-frame by indicating the legal grounds for the request to terminate. Should the public event be not terminated within such time-frame, the police shall have the right to terminate the event by means established by the law.

4. The procedure for terminating a public event shall not apply in the event of an outbreak of mass disturbances in the place of conducting the public event that calls for appropriate emergency measures.

ARTICLE 15 - LIABILITY FOR VIOLATING PROVISIONS OF THE LAW

1. The state or the community are obliged to compensate any material loss caused to organizers and participants of the public event or other event due to the unlawful prohibition or unlawful termination thereof by their respective bodies or official representatives.

Official representatives of state or local self-governance bodies shall bear liability set forth by law for unlawful hindrance, interference in or termination of a public event.

2. Organizers of a public event conducted in violation of provisions of this law or organizers and participants failing to comply with requirements for termination thereof shall be liable by law.

3. A citizen or a legal person organizing or conducting a public event or other event in violation of provisions of this law shall be considered as the organizer for the purposes of this article.

ARTICLE 16 - FINAL PROVISIONS

The entry of this law into force invalidates provisions 1 and 2 of a Decree No. 1289-XI of Presidium of Supreme Council of Republic of Armenia "On Liability for Violating Procedures Established for Organizing and Conducting Meetings, Assemblies, Street Rallies and Demonstrations " dated 29 July 1988 and Decree N 9306-XI of USSR Supreme Council Presidium "On Procedures for Organizing and Conducting Assemblies, Meetings, Rallies and Demonstrations in USSR" dated 28 July 1988.
