

CONSTITUTION OF THE KINGDOM OF BELGIUM

(...)

Article 26. Assembly

(1) Belgians have the right to gather peaceably and without arms, in accordance with the laws that regulate the exercise of this right, without submitting it to prior authorization.

(2) This provision does not apply to open air meetings, which are entirely subject to police regulations.

(...)