

Article 8

The right of all persons to life is protected by the Law. No one may be arbitrarily deprived of life. Death is not considered as inflicted in violation of this Article in the cases where it would result from recourse to the force rendered absolutely necessary, in view of assuring the defense of all persons against illegal violence. No one may be submitted to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading penalties or treatments. In particular, it is prohibited to submit a person without their free consent to a medical or scientific experiment.
