

Article 36

- (1) In the Republic of Guinea-Bissau the death penalty shall not be applied in any cases.
- (2) There shall be life imprisonment for crimes defined by law.

Article 37

- (1) The moral and physical integrity of citizens cannot be violated.
- (2) No one shall be submitted to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment.
- (3) In no case shall there be forced labour, nor security measures depriving liberty for unlimited or indefinite periods.
- (4) Criminal responsibility is personal and cannot be passed on.